

WARRENDER BATHS CLUB

Website Privacy Policy

Like many other websites, Warrender Baths Club's website uses cookies. These are small pieces of information sent by an organisation to your device to allow that website to recognise when you visit. They collect statistical data about your browsing actions and patterns and do not identify you as an individual. If you do not know what cookies are, or how to control or delete them, then we recommend you visit <http://www.aboutcookies.org> for detailed guidance.

The list below describes the cookies we use on this site and what we use them for. Currently we operate an 'implied consent' policy which means that we assume you are happy with this usage. If you are not happy, then you should either not use this site, or you should delete the cookies having visited the site, or you should browse the site using your browser's anonymous usage setting (called "Incognito" in Chrome, "InPrivate" for Internet Explorer, "Private Browsing" in Firefox and Safari etc.)

Cookies used on our site

We only use cookies to help us continuously improve our website. We use the following First Party Cookies which are set by this website directly –

- Google Analytics - We use Google Analytics to collect information about visitor behaviour on our website. Google Analytics stores information about which pages you visit, how long you are on the site, how you got here and what you click on. This Analytics data is collected via a JavaScript tag in the pages of our site and is not tied to personally identifiable information. We therefore do not collect or store your personal information (e.g. your name or address) so this information cannot be used to identify who you are. You can find out more about Google's position on privacy as regards its analytics service at <https://support.google.com/analytics/answer/6004245?hl=en>
- Session cookie - We use a session cookie to remember your log-in for you if you are a registered user and we deem these as being strictly necessary to the working of the website. If these are disabled then various functionality on the site will be broken. More information on session cookies and what they are used for can be found at <http://www.allaboutcookies.org/cookies/session-cookies-used-for.html>

Third Party Cookies

These are cookies set on your machine by external websites whose services are used on our website. Cookies of this type are the sharing buttons across the site which allow visitors to share content onto social networks. Cookies are currently set by Twitter and other websites run by other organisations accessed via links on our website. You should be aware that these sites are likely to be collecting information about what you are doing all around the internet, including on this website. This Website Privacy Policy applies only to our website, so you should check the respective policies of each of these sites to see how exactly they use your information and to find out how to opt out, or delete, such information. We cannot be responsible for the privacy policies and practices of other sites even if you access them using links from our website.

In addition, if you linked to our website from a third party site, we cannot be responsible for the privacy policies and practices of the owners and operators of that third party site and recommend that you check the policy of that third party site.

How to delete cookies or control them

This website will not use cookies to collect personally identifiable information about you. However, if you wish to restrict or block cookies set by this (or any other) website, you can do this through your browser settings. The Help function within your browser should tell you how. Alternatively, you may wish to visit www.aboutcookies.org which contains comprehensive information on how to do this for a wide variety of browsers. You will also find details on how to clear cookies from your computer as well as more general information about cookies. For information on how to do this on your mobile phone's browser, you will need to refer to your handset manual.

Please be aware that restricting cookies may impact on the functionality of this website.

Your consent

By using our site, you consent to this Website Privacy Policy.
